From the utility room, a door leads through to the superb family kitchen, which continues the tiled flooring and underfloor heating. The family kitchen is fitted with high quality oak units and features a large central breakfast bar with inset sink and additional storage. There is space for an American style fridge/freezer, a large range cooker, and bi fold doors that open out to enjoy views across the surrounding countryside.

The kitchen flows into the dining room, which has a staircase rising to the first floor and a bow window overlooking the gardens. A twin sided central fireplace with wood burning stove provides a focal point, while a glazed, illuminated well set beneath solid safety glass creates a distinctive and characterful feature.

The living room enjoys the reverse aspect of the fireplace and features a rear facing window that allows for an abundance of natural light.
