Old Court House

The Old Court House is unique property with amazing history dating back to the 17th Century. The historic England plaque outside states 'The Old Court House of the Ancient Borough of Aldborough and Boroughbridge at which the Members of Parliament were elected until 1832.'

The property is located on the edge of the green in the centre of the Roman Village of Aldborough and offers diverse accommodation and has superb leisure facilities which is not evident from the exterior.

The house which is Tardis-like in its appearance has been upgraded by the current owners to offer fantastic 5-bedroom living space which seamlessly blends the old with the new. The replacement kitchen is delightful, and the updated bathrooms would not look out of place in a high-end spa hotel. The owners have also carried out other works such as replacing the roof on the pool and landscaping in the garden.

The property would suit a range of purchasers from families to those wanting to work from home or alternatively have an income stream from the annexe as an Air BNB with the use of amazing leisure facilities.

The indoor pool is tremendous and the internal recreational space measures over 14 m x 6.4m. The adjacent Gym is multipurpose and could equally be repurposed to an entertaining area alongside the sauna.

Outside

There is an attached double garage which could be converted to additional living accommodation subject to planning. There is a courtyard garden adjacent to the sunroom and accessed via a gravelled pathway and steps is a further garden space. This is mainly laid to lawn with mature borders and is a delightful sun trap.
